Introduction to Section 3

This page tells You how We deal with any claim made against You. It doesn't form a part of the contract of insurance. It is just an explanatory note of what You should expect to happen if a claim is made against You.

If the owner of Goods that are lost or damaged whilst in Your custody claims against You for their value We will, subject to Your having complied with all the terms of this Policy, deal with the claim in one of the following three ways;

ONE

We will pay up to the limit of Your liability, as agreed in the Policy.

TWO

If We think You have a defence to liability under Your contract, We will put it forward. Please note that this does not, in any way, reject Your right to claim under this Policy. In taking this course We will continue to deal with the matter on Your behalf, leaving You to continue Your daily business activities with the minimum of disruption.

THREE

If the owner of the Goods challenges that defence We will review the position. We may still defend the case and do to court. If the judge find against You We'll pay Your legal costs, the judgement sum and any costs awarded to the claimant.

If We decide to appeal the judgement the same will happen with costs and damages if the appeal is rejected.

You are our client; We protect You in the ways shown above.

In consideration of You paying the premium We, Chubb Insurance, will provide You with insurance against loss or damage to Goods in Transit for which You are legally liable under contract, by Statute or at Common Law, occurring at any time during the period of insurance or during any subsequent period for which We accept the renewal of this Policy, subject to the terms, exception, exclusions, endorsements and warranties that may be contained in Your Policy.

Important

We recommend You read this Policy and Your Schedule to ensure that it meets with Your requirements. Should You have any queries please contact Us,

The law applicable to this Policy

The laws of England and Wales will govern Your Policy.

Interpretation

The Policy and Schedule are one contract. A word or expression to which a specific meaning has been given will keep the same meaning wherever it appears. A particular word or phrase which is not defined will have its ordinary meaning.

Declaration

Your must keep a full record of Your gross charges for all contracts specified in the Schedule if the premium is calculated on estimated figures.

You will allow Us access to those records.

You will submit a declaration of the actual gross charges earned during each period of insurance and declare them to Us within one month of the expiry of each period of insurance. Upon receipt of this declaration We will adjust the Policy and either charge more premium for any charges exceeding the estimated sum(s) or return premium if the actual gross charges are less than those estimated but not below any minimum premium specified in the Schedule.
